

Is your next career move to become a qualified tradesperson?

Here is a great opportunity to be paid while you train to be a motor mechanic.

- Work in Mechanical Light Vehicle Servicing
- Be paid wages to train, including 5 weeks upfront training at ACE (Kangan)
- Opportunity to obtain your trade qualification in 2 years

<http://www.aga.com.au/>

- ✓ AGA will employ you as an adult apprentice, you will be paid from day one
- ✓ You will be placed with host employers within AGAs broad network of automotive businesses
- ✓ Your training fees will be covered by AGA
- ✓ You will be paid above award adult apprentice rates starting at $35,000 plus superannuation per annum with the goal of completing in 2 years
- ✓ AGA will support you over the 2 years co-ordinating your work and training needs

<http://www.aceauto.com.au/>

- Kangan Institute will deliver the training in their world class Automotive Centre of Excellence (ACE) facility at Docklands
- Your training will be at no cost to you
- In your initial 5 weeks paid training at ACE, Kangan Institute will provide you with the foundation skills and knowledge to work in the light vehicle servicing industry
- Your continued training will be a combination of Trade School and workplace assessment with Kangan Institute, the training program is designed for you to achieve your Certificate III in Light Vehicle Mechanical Technology after 2 years working and training.

Apply today, places are strictly limited and subject to eligibility

Find out more – attend our information session

Tuesday 4 October 2016 4-5pm

Ford Education Development Centre (EDC), Broadmeadows

Expression of Interest

Yes, I am interested in gaining employment with AGA as an Adult Apprentice

Name
Email
Telephone
Location

I am interested in the following adult apprentice employment opportunities:

2016 - Commencing the 24th October

Automotive Servicing

2017 – Commencing early February

Automotive Servicing

Warehousing

Building and Construction

This initiative is supported by the Victorian State Government via the SEAT and Back to Work programs for retrenched automotive workers and the Victorian Training Guarantee.

