

Facilitator Biography

Vicki Carter

Vicki Carter is an organisational psychologist with a background as a Senior Human Resources Manager. She is a trainer and executive coach with extensive experience across all industries – corporate and public sector.

As a Registered Psychologist, Vicki brings proven psychometric methodologies and best practice to assignments. She has led the development of competency frameworks, recruitment, performance, and leadership platforms for organisations, built assessment tools, as well as facilitated team building and cultural change programs. Vicki has extensive experience as an executive and leadership coach. Her approach is built on recognizing and building on strengths, underpinned by up to date coaching psychology research, theory and practice. She has been invited to present to organizations on a range of topics, including Women in Leadership, Emotional Resilience, and Mindfulness.

Areas of Expertise

As a Victorian Chamber Consultant Vicki provides training, facilitation and consulting services in the areas of:

- Executive & Leadership Coaching,
- Women in Leadership
- Emotional Intelligence,
- Dealing with Challenging & Aggressive Behaviours in the Workplace,
- Conflict and you
- Weathering the storm, managing your emotions in the workplace
- Personality types in the workplace - MBTI
- Teambuilding
- Employee Opinion Surveys

Qualifications

- Vicki holds a science degree from Monash University with post-graduate qualifications in the field of psychology;
- She is registered with the Australian Health Practitioner Registration Agency (AHPRA) as a Psychologist with endorsement for approved area of practice in the field of Organisational Psychology; and
- Is a member of the Australian Psychological Society, and is accredited in a range of psychometric tools including Cognitive, Personality, Emotional Intelligence, MBTI, Sales, Vocational, and 360 questionnaires